

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

An informed citizenry requires the opportunity to hear a full range of ideas, information, and opinions. When the media are owned by a few, this important ingredient of democracy is truncated.
